History

And so forth and so on...

In 2008, five friends since the early 1970s, formed Et Cetera Wine Company. With varying wine industry backgrounds and areas of expertise, the five have joined together to produce wines of exceptional quality from the great wine regions around the world. The intent of Et Cetera Wine Company is to create what the friends were brought up around - great wine value. Their story is not of succession or nostalgia. It is a story of doing what they know, and doing it well.
