"...I find this wine to be brilliant and I would highly recommend it. This reminds me of $50 Pinot Noirs from California...Now, knowing this is $15, this maybe one of the most interesting wines I've reviewed for the newsletter. In almost 1,100 episodes and in all my years of buying wine for Wine Library, I've seldom come across a Pinot Noir with this kind of complexity at such a fair price point. I'm so fired up over this stuff!" - Gary Vaynerchuk
